

Sticky Knowledge:

- To know that the Transatlantic Slave Trade operated between Europe, Africa and the Americas.
- To know some of the key events that led to the end of legal slavery.
- To know the Kingdom of Benin was at its height (most prosperous) around 1,000 years ago and was invaded by Britain.
- To know the importance of the Windrush Generation.
- To know the names and actions of significant historical figures associated with the Civil Rights movement.
- To know how the rights of black people have changed through history.

Abraham Lincoln

Barak Obama

Harriet Tubman

Glossary:

- Enslaved person: a person forced to work for no pay, to follow commands and to be without freedom of movement and choice.
- Transatlantic: crossing the Atlantic
- Plantation: an estate on which crops such as sugar, coffee and tobacco are grown
- Underground Railroad: secret routes and safe houses which assisted enslaved people in escaping their masters.
- Emancipation Proclamation: a declaration made by President Lincoln to end slavery in the United States of America
- Abolish: to formally end something.
- Legislation: laws that are in place or introduced.
- Benin Bronzes: a collection of statues, sculptures and plaques from the Kingdom of Benin.
- Discrimination: unfair treatment of people based on different characteristics such as race and ethnicity.
- Civil rights: the rights of citizens to political and social freedom and equality
- Segregation: the act of separating people based on race.

Benin Bronze