

Sticky Knowledge:

- To know why significant figures wanted to bring about change.
- To know how they tried to convince others to help them create change.
- To know the impact significant figures had.

Extracts from 'The Ladies' Book of Etiquette and Manual of Politeness' (1860)

On how to behave in the street:
Never look back! It is excessively ill-bred.

On how to behave at an evening party:
Avoid crossing the room alone, and never run, even if you feel embarrassed, and wish to cross quickly.

Glossary:

- Coverture - the legal status of a married woman, considered to be under her husband's protection and authority.
- Subordination - placement in a lower class, rank, or position
- Etiquette - the customary code of polite behaviour in society or among members of a particular profession or group.
- Renaissance - the revival of European art and literature under the influence of classical models in the 14th–16th centuries.
- Suffrage - the right to vote in political elections
- Propaganda - information, especially of a biased or misleading nature, used to promote a political cause or point of view.
- Hypothesis - a proposed explanation made on the basis of limited evidence as a starting point for further investigation.
- Conscription - compulsory enlistment for state service, typically into the armed forces.
- Martyr - a person who dies because of their religious or other beliefs
- Discrimination - the unjust or prejudicial treatment of different categories of people, for example due to their gender
- Legislation – laws made, or the process of making laws

